

Quality Policy

Manufacture industrial adhesives that meet the requirements, needs and expectations of our clients, ensuring the preservation of the environment.

Provide very good working conditions and professional training to our employees, in order to continuously improve our products and service.

Provide working conditions and professional training to our employees, in order to continuously improve our products and services.

Environmental Policy

Manufacture industrial adhesives that fulfill the customers environmental requirements, assuring the environment preservation and the success of our company;

Provide appropriate working conditions and professional qualification to our employees, aiming to continuous improvement of environmental aspects;

Fulfill the environmental requirements described in the government legislation, attending to the environmental bodies.

Mission, Vision and Values

The Dalton Group's vision is to remain a world reference in adhesion systems for elastomers, and understands that it can only achieve this by fulfilling its mission which is to produce high quality industrial adhesives with innovative solutions that meet the expectations of its customers.

The group's businesses are based on the following values:

- Integrity
- Ethical Behavior
- Environmental Protection
- Human Resources and Management

Amilton Medeiros Silva
Global Director